SVHS ADMINISTRATION

I recently read this from George Washington Carver and thought it would be good to think about:

“How far you go in life depends on your being tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving, and tolerant of the weak and strong. Because someday in life, you will have been all of these.”

February is often filled with many activities and unfortunately some cold weather. Please be safe in all your travels and good luck with your activities. Go Braves!
